Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you very much for taking your valuable time to write to me on 2/11/67.

I shall be absolutely delighted to retype your Manchester manuscript. You must be seething at its contents!

My oldest daughter, Carol, an executive secretary in N. Y. C., feels as strongly about this subject as I do and has volunteered her typing services along with mine.

If the style of type on this letter does not please you, I shall be happy to rent a typewriter, at my expense, of the style you prefer.

Thank you for giving me a small part in your magnificent work.

Sincerely,

Elaine M. Falkner
